When Israel came forth from Egypt, they have ears but they cannot hear; Jacob's sons from an alien people, they have nostrils but they cannot smell. Israel became the Lord's temple, Israel became his kingdom. The sea fled at the sight: the Jordan turned back on its course, the mountains leapt like rams and the hills like yearling sheep. Why was it, sea, that you fled, that you turned back, Jordan, on your course? Mountains, that you leapt like rams, hills, like yearling sheep? Tremble, O earth, before the Lord, in the presence of the God of Jacob, who turns the rock into a pool and flint into a spring of water. Not to us, Lord, not to us, but to your name give the glory for the sake of your love and your truth, lest the heathen say: 'Where is their God?' But our God is in the heavens; he does whatever he wills. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human hands. They have mouths but they cannot speak; they have eyes but they cannot see; now and for ever. But we who live bless the Lord nor those who go down into the silence. The dead shall not praise the Lord, but the earth he has given to men. The heavens belong to the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth. May you be blessed by the Lord, to you and all your children. to you may the Lord grant increase, the little no less than the great: The Lord will bless those who fear him, He will bless the sons of Aaron. he will bless the sons of Israel. He remembers us, and he will bless us; You who fear him, trust in the Lord; he is their help and their shield. Sons of Aaron, trust in the Lord; he is their help and their shield. Their makers will come to be like them, and so will all who trust in them. Sons of Israel, trust in the Lord; he is their help and their shield. With their hands they cannot feel; (No sound comes from their throats.) Their makers will come to be like them, and so will all who trust in them. Sons of Israel, trust in the Lord; he is their help and their shield. Sons of Aaron, trust in the Lord; he is their help and their shield. Mountains, that you leapt like rams, hills, like yearling sheep? Tremble, O earth, before the Lord, in the presence of the God of Jacob, who turns the rock into a pool and flint into a spring of water. Not to us, Lord, not to us, but to your name give the glory for the sake of your love and your truth, lest the heathen say: 'Where is their God?'
